FIFTY FIFTY breaks K-pop girl group record on Spotify

Rookie group FIFTY FIFTY has exceeded 30 million monthly listeners on Spotify. The quartet is now the K-pop girl group with the highest number of monthly listeners on the world's largest streaming platform.

FIFTY FIFTY reached the 34.3 million mark as of Friday (local time), according to Spotify. It shattered the previous record set by K-pop heavyweight BLACKPINK last year of 34.12 million. FIFTY FIFTY's viral hit, "Cupid" has also retained spots on the top 10 of Spotify's Daily Top Songs Global chart for more than a month.

"Cupid" is going strong on Billboard, clinching the No. 17 in its eighth week on its main singles chart, Tuesday. The feel-good earworm has been climbing up the chart after debuting at No. 100 on March 28. FIFTY FIFTY is the fastest K-pop group to land a song on this chart, which achieved the feat just 130 days after its debut.

"We are currently discussing the necessary details to prepare for the next release and we are working with the members to adjust the production schedule," FIFTY FIFTY's chief producer SIAHN told The Korea Times in a recent interview. "We intend to continue with the next story after 'Cupid' and maintain the direction established during the planning stage."

Enhypen returns with 'Dark Blood'

K-pop boy band Enhypen returned Monday for the first time in 10 months with its new album "Dark Blood."

During its comeback showcase held in Seoul on Monday, the seven members appeared on stage in black suits, with their handsome faces even paler than usual.

Don't be fooled by the spooky visuals of the group's new album, however, as "Dark Blood" is an album devoted to expressing the group's heartfelt gratitude and love towards their fans.

"We received a lot of love and support from our fans when we met them after the pandemic. We realized that we were closely connected with Engenes. This album shows our gratitude for Engenes through the story of a boy," said Sunghoon on Monday. Engine is the name of the band's official fan base.

The new album marks the end of the group's longest hiatus. "Dark Blood" comes 10 months since the release of the band's third EP "Manifesto: Day 1" in July 2022.

Along with "Bite Me," the album also composes five other vampire-themed songs: "Fate," "Sacrifice (Eat Me Up)," "Chaconne," "Bills" and "Karma."

Enhypen, which consists of the seven winners of 2019 Mnet survival program "I-Land," began its journey in 2020 with its first album "Border: Day One."

Soaring to stardom through its debut, the group nabbed its first million-seller title in just a year with its first LP "Dimension: Dilemma," racking up over 1.13 million units.

In June 2022, the group's third EP "Manifesto: Day 1" also garnered a million units in sales on its second day, making Enhypen the fastest K-pop group to notch up two million-seller albums with a debut.

The group shared its aspiration to keep growing with its new album.

Ni-Ki said, "We want to continue advancing as artists and make ourselves known to more people. Hopefully, we can hold another world tour and spread our energy to more Engenes around the world."

Enhypen's fourth EP "Dark Blood" came out at 6 p.m. on Monday.

NewJeans' new album currently in works, agency says

Girl group NewJeans is currently in preparation for a new album.

“It is true that NewJeans is currently in preparation for a comeback. The dates are not confirmed yet [and] we will notify when the dates are confirmed,” the girl group’s agency ADOR told the Korea JoongAng Daily on Tuesday.

Media outlets reported Tuesday that the girl group will drop a prerelease track on July 7, followed by a new album in the same month.

NewJeans made its debut as a five-member group — Minji, Hanni, Danielle, Haerin and Hyein — that debuted in August 2023 with EP “New Jeans” under ADOR, a newly-founded music label under HYBE, led by the former creative director of SM Entertainment, Min Hee-jin.

NewJeans stormed the global K-pop scene with successive hits, such as “Attention,” “Hybe Boy,” “Ditto” and “OMG.” The girl group received rookie awards and the Performance of the Year award from the Asia Artist Awards in December 2022.

The girl group will hold its first fan meeting, “Bunnies Camp,” at the SK Olympic Handball Gymnasium in Songpa District, southern Seoul, on July 1 and 2.
