BTS's Jungkook to drop new solo album in July

Jungkook of BTS plans to drop a new solo album in July, according to media reports Sunday.

"We plan on sharing the [release] dates once it is confirmed," BigHit Music told the Korea JoongAng Daily on Monday.

Jungkook had previously released two free solo tracks on SoundCloud, titled "Still With You" (2020) and "My You" (2022).

He also participated in different collaboration albums, with songs including "Stay Alive" (2022), a theme song for "7Fates: Chakho," a fantasy webtoon created in collaboration with BTS, and "Dreamers" (2022) for the official soundtrack of the 2022 FIFA World Cup Qatar.

It has not yet been revealed if Jungkook's rumored solo album will be his first official solo album release.

BTS members were seen releasing their official solo albums in 2022 and 2023, followed by their free solo tracks and album releases through SoundCloud.

J-Hope dropped his first full-length solo album, "Jack In The Box" in July 2022, RM dropped "Indigo" in December 2022, Jimin released his first EP "FACE" in March and most recently, Suga released his first full-length album "D-DAY" on April 21 under his second stage name, Agust D.

Jungkook made his debut as the youngest member of BTS in 2013. BTS is currently taking a break from its group activities, allowing members to focus on solo releases and complete mandatory military service.

Stay Kids third album most pre-ordered K-pop record ever

Pre-orders for Stay Kids' third full-length album surpassed 5.13 million copies as of Thursday, setting yet another record as the most pre-ordered album in the history of K-pop.

“★★★★★ (5-STAR)”, the boy band's third full-length album which dropped Friday, had already made it to the most pre-ordered album in the history of K-pop back on Tuesday with 4.93 million copies pre-ordered. An update made a day before the album's release on Thursday confirmed that the album pre-orders surpassed 5 million copies.

The boy band's previous albums also saw positive sales figures, with Stay Kids' achieving its first million-selling album with its second full-length album "Noeasy" in 2021. It sold over 1.67 million copies, followed by its EP "Oddinary" (2022), which sold 1.85 million copies, and "Maxident," which sold over 3.42 million copies, making it the most-sold album from the boy band's agency JYP Entertainment.

Stay Kids debuted in 2017 as a nine-member group under JYP Entertainment. After Woojin left the band and agency in 2019, citing personal reasons, Stay Kids has been active as a group of eight — Bang Chan, Lee Know, Changbin, Hyunjin, Han, Felix, Seungmin and I.N.

Stay Kids will hold a meet and greet “Stay Kids 3rd Fanmeeting ‘Pilot : For ★★★★★’” at the KSPO Dome in Songpa District's Olympic Park, located in southern Seoul on July 1 and 2.

Kim Ha-neul, Jung Ji-hoon to star in Disney+ series 'Red Swan'

Actors Kim Ha-neul and Jung Ji-hoon, also known by his stage name Rain, will star in a new Disney+ drama series "Red Swan," the streaming service announced Friday.

Kim will play Wan-soo, a former golf professional who marries into a chaebol family. Jung will play Do-yoon, a police academy graduate who is assigned as Wan-soo's bodyguard.

Director Park Hong-kyun, who directed hit dramas including "Queen Seondoek" (2009) and "The Greatest Love" (2011), will take the helm of "Red Swan."

Kim debuted as a fashion model in 1996 and has starred in films and dramas, including "Road No.1" (2010), "On Air" (2008) and "18 Again" (2020).

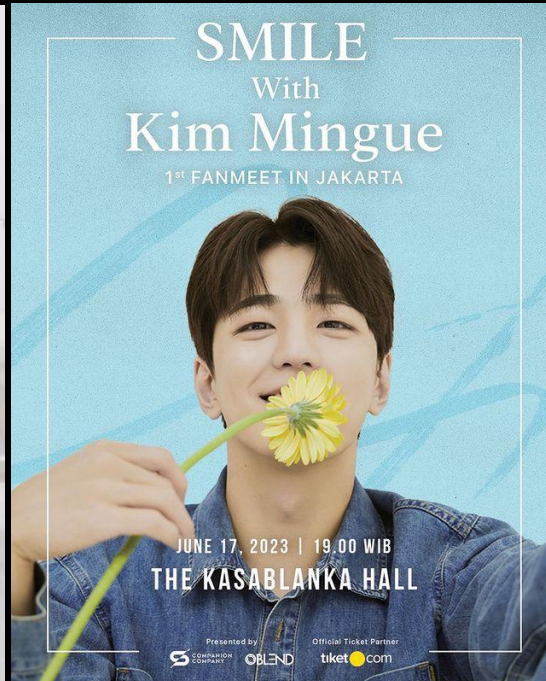

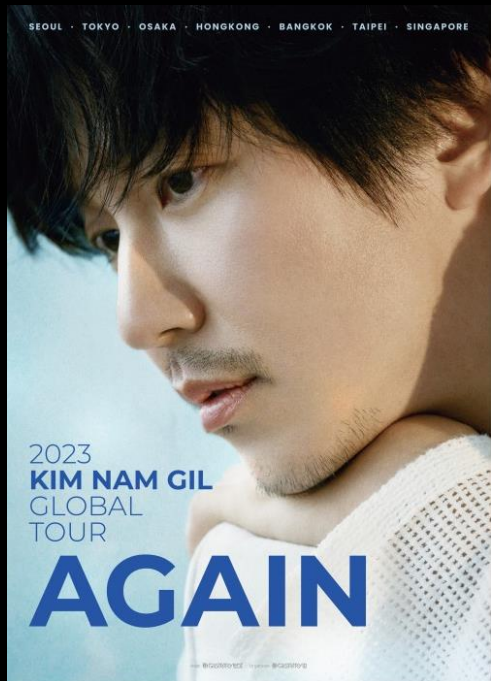

Jung debuted as a singer of a boy band in 1998 and made his acting debut in the hugely popular drama "Full House" (2004) and has appeared in dramas and films such as the Hollywood film "Ninja Assassin" (2009) and "Come Back Mister" (2016).

Disney+ has not yet specified when "Red Swan" will be released.
