BTS tops worldwide music charts with latest single 'Take Two'

BTS topped worldwide music charts with "Take Two," the band's latest single released on Friday to celebrate the septet's 10th anniversary of debut that falls on Tuesday.

"Take Two" landed at No. 1 on global streaming service Spotify's Daily Top Song Global chart on Saturday, with over 7.2 million streams within a single day.

The song also debuted atop Japanese music chart Oricon's Daily Digital Single Ranking with 21,792 downloads within a day.

It sat on the No. 1 spot for the iTunes' Top Song chart in 92 regions as of Saturday morning.

"'Take Two' is a song dedicated to the fans, a song made for the band's 10th anniversary of debut with all their gratitude toward fans," BTS's agency BigHit Music said in a press release.

HYBE will hold a series of events starting Monday to celebrate the band's monumental year. Eight different locations around Seoul will be turned purple, the band's official color, media artworks will be installed, and more.

Girl group ITZY to drop new album next month

KELEBRITY . WORLD

K-pop girl group ITZY will put out a new EP, titled "Kill My Doubt," on July 31, the group's agency said Monday.

The quintet's latest release was "Cheshire," its sixth EP dropped in November.

The upcoming EP will comprise six tracks, led by "Cake," according to JYP Entertainment. It said the five other songs are "Bet on Me," "None of My Business," "Bratty," "Psychic Lover" and "Kill Shot." (Yonhap)

HOT ISSUE

More stars to join second season of 'Squid Game'

Actors Yim Si-wan, Kang Ha-neul, Park Sung-hoon and Yang Dong-geun will join the second season of one of Netflix's most anticipated original series, "Squid Game," the U.S. streaming service said Saturday.

The new additions will join the first season's star-studded cast of Lee Jung-jae, Lee Byung-hun, Wi Ha-jun and Gong Yoo, all of whom will be taking part in the upcoming season, too.

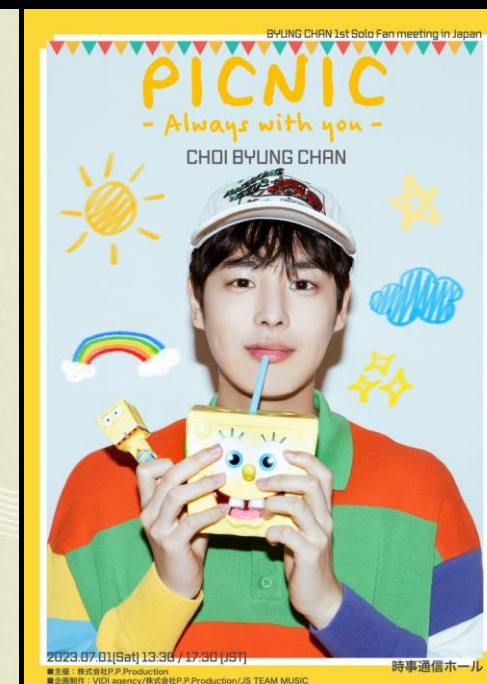

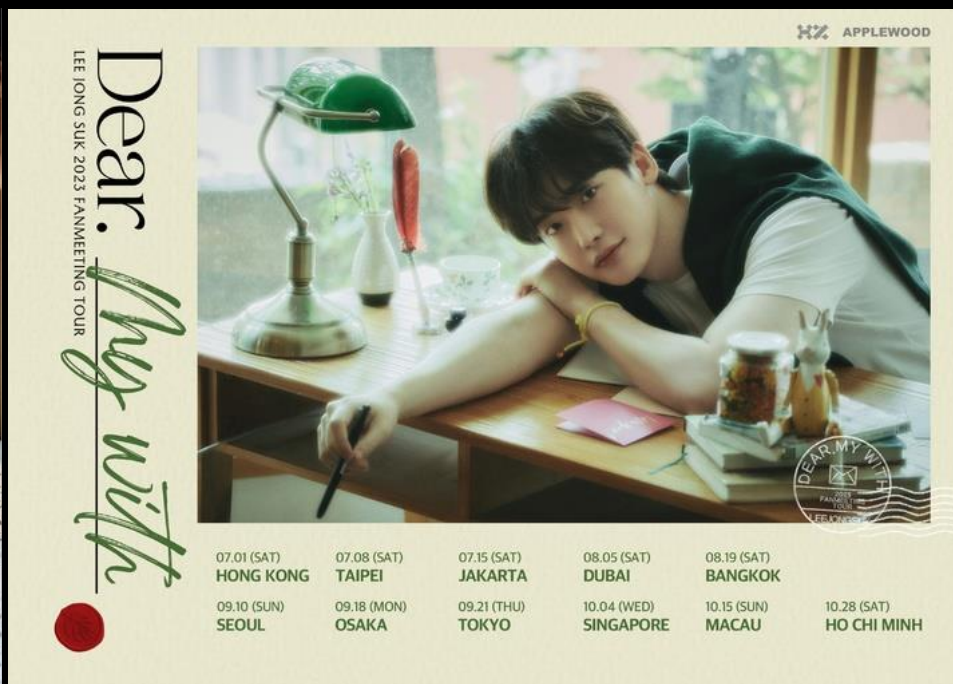

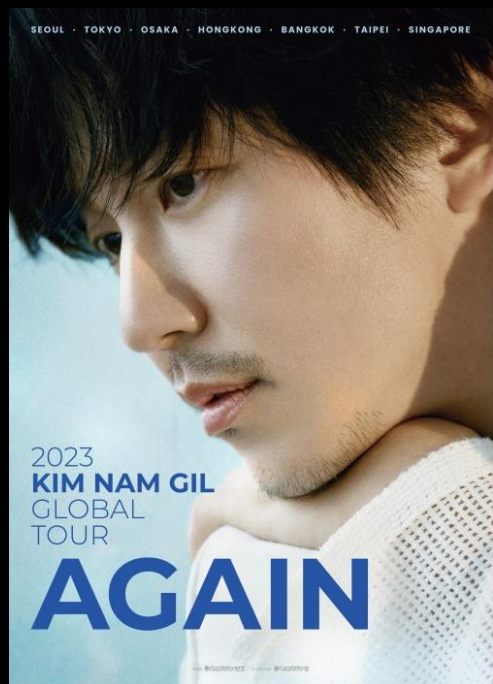

The announcement was made through Netflix's in-person festival, "Tudum: A Netflix Global Fan Event" in Sao Paulo on Saturday featuring the cast and directors of popular shows, announcements about new shows and more.

"Squid Game" swept streaming service charts when it was released in 2021 and became a worldwide sensation, garnering critical acclaim and various awards. The survival drama series told the story of hundreds of cash-strapped contestants who participate in children's games for a prize of 45.6 billion won ($35.7 million).

The second season of "Squid Game" will start shooting in the latter half of this year. A release date has not been set yet.
