BTS's Jungkook becomes fastest K-pop soloist to hit 1 billion Spotify streams

Jungkook of boy band BTS became the fastest K-pop soloist to surpass 1 billion streams on global music streaming service Spotify, earning the singer a Guinness World Record before his official solo debut.

The record was achieved on March 27, 409 days after the songs' release dates. The previous record was held by Lisa of girl group Blackpink, who reached the threshold in 411 days.

Jungkook, the youngest member of BTS, has released solo tracks as part of the band's albums but has not had a solo debut like other members such as Jin, J-Hope, Jimin, RM and Suga.

His first solo music was "Begin" (2016) and he has had success with other solo tracks such as "Euphoria" (2018) and "My Time" (2020).

Jungkook's solo album is set for release this year, but a date has not been set yet.

Only members Jungkook and V have not released solo albums.

Blackpink's Lisa earns her seventh Guinness World Record

KELEBRITY.WORLD

Lisa of girl group Blackpink earned yet another Guinness World Record, this time with her 2022 hit EP "Lalisa." According to Guinness World Records, "Lalisa" became the first-ever EP from a solo singer to surpass 1 billion streams on global music streaming service Spotify.

The EP only has two songs: "Lalisa" and "Money."

The feat was achieved 595 days after it dropped on Sept. 10, 2022. This marks Lisa's seventh Guinness World Record.

She also holds the record for most-watched solo artist's YouTube music video within 24 hours with "Lalisa," and most-watched K-pop solo artist's YouTube music video within 24 hours, also with "Lalisa," among others.

Blackpink is currently on its "Born Pink" world tour, set to meet with 1.5 million fans around the world.

The group will also headline the Hyde Park British Summer Time Festival in July.
