JAPAN			TO BE UPDATED

Suga, a member of K-pop supergroup BTS, said Wednesday he will begin his first-ever individual world tour in April.

The rapper announced the news with detailed tour dates on Weverse, a K-pop fan community platform.

Starting with Belmont Park on April 26–27, the tour will take him to other parts of the United States — Newark, Rosemont, Los Angeles and Oakland — as well as Indonesia, Thailand, Singapore, Seoul and Japan.

This will be the first concert by Suga as a soloist, with his last concert as a BTS member being the one held in October in Busan to support the southeastern city's bid to host the 2030 World Expo.

TXT spends 2nd week in top 3 of Billboard albums chart

K-pop group Tomorrow X Together has stayed in the top three on the U.S. Billboard's main albums chart for the second consecutive week. Billboard said Sunday (U.S. time) in a preview of this week's charts that the Korean group ranked third on the Billboard 200 with its latest album, "The Name Chapter: Temptation," a week after its debut at No. 1. TXT is the only K-pop act to stay in the top three for two or more weeks in a row, except for BTS, according to BigHit Music, the K-pop agency that manages both groups. The chart ranks the most popular albums of the week in the country, measured by equivalent album units comprising physical album sales and other digital sales records. "The Name Chapter: Temptation" is the fifth EP from the quintet, which depicts youths swaying in front of the temptation to live in the present while enjoying freedom and entertainment even though they know they have to grow up.

It consists of five tracks, including the main single, "Sugar Rush Ride," as well as "Devil by the Window" and "Happy Fools."

The EP became a big hit in Korea upon its release on Jan.27, selling more than 2 million copies in its debut week. It has also remained high up on a real-time chart of Melon, Korea's largest music streaming platform, which is unusual for a boy group.

'Physical: 100' most popular TV show on Netflix this week

Netflix survival show "Physical: 100" has topped a global popularity chart for TV shows available on the streaming giant, just 15 days after its release, becoming the most successful Korean TV variety show to date.

First released on Jan. 24, "Physical: 100" ranked No. 1 on streaming analytics website FlixPatrol's global chart for top TV shows on Netflix on Wednesday (U.S. time).

It also was the most-viewed TV show on the streaming service in 38 nations, including South Korea, Canada, France, Sweden, Singapore and Vietnam, according to FlixPatrol.

It placed second in 15 nations, including the United States, Brazil, Hungary, Kenya, the Philippines and Qatar, and took third place in 11 other nations.
