KELEBRITY . WORLD

K-pop supergroup BTS has won four trophies at the 37th Japan Golden Disc Awards, BigHit Music, the group's agency, said Friday.

The septet clinched Best Asian Artist presented by the Recording Industry Association of Japan for the fifth year in a row.

It also grabbed Song of the Year by Download (Asia), Music Video of the Year (Asia) and one of the Best 3 Albums (Asia).

BTS member Jungkook also won Song of the Year by Streaming (Western) for "Left and Right," a collaboration song with American singer-songwriter Charlie Puth.

'The Glory' becomes most popular show on Netflix globally

Netflix's latest revenge drama series "The Glory" became the most popular show globally on Monday, just three days after the release of the first season's remaining episodes on Friday.

According to a Netflix ranking tracker website FlixPatrol, the show ranked No. 1 in 26 countries on Monday, including Korea, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico and more, and No. 3 in the United States and the United Kingdom, making it the overall No. 1 show globally.

Netflix app usage in Korea also hit an all-time high following the release, according to the data analysis company WiseApp and Wise Retail, with the app's active users reaching 4.88 million users on March 10, the day of the release, and 5.32 million users on March 11, a 61 percent increase from the 3.31 million users recorded on March 9.

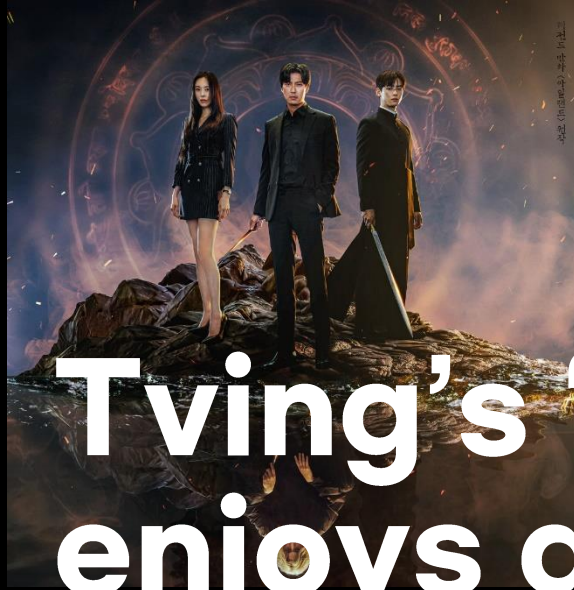

The director of the show, Ahn Gil-ho, has been at the center of controversy since last Friday after being accused of having been a bully during his school days. Ahn admitted to the allegations and apologized through his attorneys on Sunday.

Tving's 'Island' enjoys global popularity

Tving's latest sci-fi action thriller has landed on Amazon Prime Video top 10 charts in at least 17 countries as of Thursday, according to the South Korean online streaming service provider run by entertainment giant CJ ENM.

Amazon Prime Video is a subscription-based video streaming service run by Amazon.

"Island" topped Amazon Prime Video's TV charts in Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam and the Philippines. It was listed among the top 10 on charts in 13 countries, including Brazil, Indonesia and Malaysia.

The 12-part series, adapted from authors Youn In-wan and Yang Kyung-il's popular webtoon series of the same title, revolves around three strangers trying to survive on Jeju Island, where evil roams free.

Singer and actor Cha Eunwoo of Astro portrays Vatican priest Johan, while Kim Nam-gil and Lee Da-hee play Van, a cold-hearted human weapon monk, and young, rich heiress Won Mi-ho, respectively.

The final two episodes are to be released at noon on Friday. The action thriller series will be available on Tving and Amazon Prime Video.
