Suga sets new record for first-day sales for a solo K-pop artist

Suga of BTS overtook his bandmate Jimin's record, selling over 1 million copies of his first full-length album "D-DAY" on the day of its release on Friday and setting a new record for first-day sales for a solo K-pop artist.

Suga's new album, released under his alter-stagename Agust D, sold 1,072,000 copies on Friday, according to Korean music tracker Hanteo Chart. The previous record was set by BTS member Jimin's album "FACE" that sold 1,021,000 copies last month.

Of that amount, over 110,000 copies were sold in Japan, shooting Agust D to the top of Oricon's Daily Album Ranking chart on Sunday.

Eight tracks off the album, including lead track "Haegeum," sat among the top 10 songs the Daily Digital Single Ranking on the same day.

"Haegeum," which either means to unlock something that had been forbidden or the name of a Korean traditional string instrument, reached No. 1 on the iTunes Top Song chart in 90 regions around the world. The song was streamed over 3.9 million times on Friday, landing at No. 11 on Spotify's Daily Top Song Global chart.

"D-DAY" is Suga's first official solo album and also concludes his Agust D trilogy, following the release of two mixtapes, "Agust D" (2016) and "D-2" (2020).

"D-2" included the lead track "Daechwita," which was derived from the Korean traditional military tune of the same name.

Suga will start his first solo tour on April 26 stopping at Belmont Park, followed by Newark, Rosemont, Los Angeles and Oakland for his "SUGA | Agust D-DAY TOUR." He will then go on to make stops in Indonesia, Thailand, Singapore and Seoul.

(G)I-DLE to release sixth EP 'I feel' on May 15

Girl group (G)I-DLE will release its sixth EP “I feel” on May 15, with lead track “Queencard,” written and produced by member Soyeon, announced its agency CUBE Entertainment on Monday.

The tracklist was released on Monday and revealed that the EP will contain six tracks, “Queencard,” “Allergy,” “Lucid” “All Night” “Paradise” and “Early Adult.”

Members of (G)I-DLE have participated in the production of all six tracks, with Soyeon involved in “Queencard,” “Allergy” “Lucid” and “Early Adult” (translated), Minnie composing and writing lyrics for “Lucid” and “All Night,” and Yuqi working on “All Night” and “Early Adult.”

A concept photo released on the same day showed the members posing against a pink-themed Y2K background, giving a glimpse into the concept of the upcoming album.

(G)I-DLE debuted as a six-member girl group in May 2018. Following school bullying allegations against its member Soojin, CUBE made the decision to terminate its exclusive contract with her and continue (G)I-DLE’s activities as a group of five.

Currently consisting of Miyeon, Minnie, Soyeon, Yuqi and Shuhua, the girl group is known for its hits – mostly composed and produced by the leader Soyeon – “Latata” (2019), “Lion” (2020), “DUMDi DUMDi” (2020), “Tomboy” (2022) and “Nxde” (2022).

Korean dystopian thriller 'Bargain' wins best screenplay at Canneseries

Streaming platform Tving's dystopian series "Bargain" has received the best screenplay award at this year's Cannes International Series Festival, becoming the first Korean drama to win a trophy at the French event.

Its three co-writers — Jeon Woo-sung, Choi Byeong-yun and Kwan Jae-min — were honored at the 6th Canneseries in Cannes, a resort town in France, on Wednesday (local time).

"I am honored to receive the invitation and recognition for this very unique concept work," Jeon, who also directed the series, said during the awards ceremony. "I really appreciate the award."

Based on a 2015 short film directed by Lee Chung-hyun, "Bargain" centers on the brutal struggles of victims in a destroyed building after a massive earthquake disconnects everyone inside from the outside world.

Jin Sun-kyu plays a middle-aged man who faces the risk of losing his organs in the black market, and Jeon Jong-seo appears as a teenage girl involved in the organ trade.

It premiered on Tving in October and will debut on the global market through Paramount+ later this year.
